THE GOSPEL READING FOR THIS WEEK IS: The shrewd manager (Luke 16: 1-13)

Core extract from the Gospel (Luke 16: 13; for reflection throughout the week)

Jesus said, 'No slave can serve two masters;
for a slave will either hate the one and love the other,
or be devoted to the one and despise the other.
You cannot serve God and wealth.'

Gospel prayer (for use throughout the week)

Lord Jesus Christ,
you call your people
to choose your way.
Help us to follow you
with all our being,
that we may live as your disciples;
for you are our God,
now and always.
Amen.

Things to think about

- Have you ever found it difficult to choose which way to go at a crossroads?
- How did this make you feel?
- How did you decide which road to take
- Was it the right road?

Things to do

- Walk around your local area, perhaps walk your journey to school. How many cross roads to you encounter?
- See what happens if you choose a different road. Can you still get to the same destination?
- Crossroads sign post.

You will need: paper, scissors, pencils, pens, bamboo cane or wooden post, sticky tape.

Decide which places you would like to add to your signpost. They might be locations in the Bible, real places around the world or even imaginary locations from books.

Cut out road sign shaped pieces of card or paper, as many as you have locations for.

Write the locations on the signs and stick to the cane.

Why not share your creations with us? We would love to see what you have been up to! Please email any photos to education@liverpoolcathedral.org.uk or tag @LivCathedral on social media.
